Notes for Chester Newton Fannin II:

Chester Newton Fannin Jr of Troy died Sep 8, 2023, just days before his 98th birthday. He was born Sep 26, 1925, in Barboursville, WV, the son of Chester Newton Fannin Sr. and Verna Louise Hamlin. He is survived by his two sons, Roger Fannin and companion Joan Hall, of Camarillo, CA; Michael Fannin and his wife Wendy of Middletown Springs, VT; three grandchildren, five great grandchildren and three great great grandchildren. From an early age, Chester was interested in aviation. During the second world war he piloted the B25 light bomber. He kept a private license after the war. Following discharge he resumed his studies at Marshall University, graduating with a degree in education, and soon thereafter married Patricia Ann Booth, also of Barboursville, with whom he had his two sons. The family moved to Troy in 1952 where Chester was employed by BF Goodrich as a draftsman for many years. Later, after earning a degree in engineering from the University of Dayton, he was employed by the Dayton Walther Corporation as their chief engineer in research and development. After retirement he taught calculus for a while at Edison College. In 1958 he married Mary Lou Adkins of Huntington, WV, who was well known in the local community for her thousands of hours of volunteer work at Dettmer Hospital. She predeceased him in 2015. Chester was a lifelong member of the Methodist church and brought up his family in that institution. He was an honest, clean living, hardworking, church going family man which turned out to be the formula that likely led to his great longevity. He was an avid golfer when younger, and later in life enjoyed socializing with the daily crowd at K's. His love for mathematical precision followed him throughout his life and manifested itself in many ways. He designed and built his own home, drafting the drawings to the smallest detail. He was an excellent cabinet maker. In his seventies he became fascinated with the demands of quilt making and achieved great success in this new hobby. His creations are now dispersed among his descendants where they will continue to be a comfortable reminder of him. "Chet" was one of the last remaining WW-II veterans living in Troy. Though diminished by age he was often noticed wearing his veteran's hat on the streets of Troy where the locals showed him many acts of consideration and kindness deferential to his service. These were gestures for which he was profoundly grateful and speak to the character of those who noticed the old veteran and helped him along his way. Chester Fannin lived a long life and enjoyed good health, mobility and independence right up to the end which came quickly. He will be interred among his ancestors at Ridgelawn Cemetery in Huntington, WV. Our family will be respecting his instructions and rather than have a public memorial service will be celebrating his memory privately.

Meara was born in Riverside, CA Sep 15, 1971 to Florence Paula Dye and the late Michael Edward Larralde. Meara was a very hard working, strong, stubborn, funny, loving, creative, carefree, charming and compassionate person. She loved her family, friends and pets with her whole heart. She knew how to love unconditionally, and sought to share that love with all whom she met. She had the ability to make anyone feel comfortable, so they could just be themselves. She taught her children to be loving, always. She was artistic in many ways. She could draw, write, and her handwriting was so pretty! She loved to cook and serve others in this way, she invited you into her life and made you feel welcome. She could make people smile, even when she was in pain and sad. Some of Meara's favorite things were time with her daughters, time with Billy, being close to the water, reading, laughing, music, driving fast, getting her nails done, having friends over to cook for, sushi, In-N-Out, and artichokes. She was witty and not afraid to laugh at herself. She loved to stick googly eyes in the most random places, leave notes for her loved ones, and send the silliest photos and gif's via text. We don't know what her last meal would have been, but we know that over the last year when she couldn't eat she smiled and still remained positive during the joys of a good conversation over the meal. She enjoyed holidays and she worked hard to make sure her girls and family had a nice Christmas Eve and day, even though she was in pain and not feeling well. The time we all shared with her really was a gift, and our lives are richer because of her. She was full of cheer and a merry spirit and it overflowed onto all who knew her. To miss someone so much means they were extremely special, and we were blessed to have her in our lives. She is in our hearts forever and will always be missed. We celebrate her life and will cherish her presence that will live on in our hearts and her two amazing daughters: Shelby and Karsten. Notes for Robert Franklin Hamlin:

I was born at 10:30 pm a Tue night which happened to be election day that year. President Roosevelt was reelected for 3rd term that night and Mother decided to name me after him with my middle name as Franklin. I was an only child for 6 and one half years due to the war going on. Dad was quite busy running a plant 24 hours a day with 3 shifts doing government contract work manufacturing various parts for the war effort. My folks were allowed to have a car and gas and even sugar and coffee--things many others were rationed for. Then my sister was born in 1947 after the war. I attended voluntary kindergarten at age 6 since I wasn't allowed to start school until I was almost 7 due to my birthday falling after the cutoff date of Oct 15th. In elementary school I began taking private piano lessons at age 7 which lasted until 6th grade. Began band in 4th grade--playing the clarinet as my doctor said it would be good for my asthma(outgrew it about age 21) which had begun at age 3. I really loved music and also began youth choir at church at same time. In those days we had junior high and I was there from 7th thru 9th where I was in Band and in Orchestra. Since a language was required in HS, I took Latin in 9th and 10th since I was going to be in premed some day. High school began in 10th then and I was still active in Marching Band and Concert Band. We were one of top HS bands in NC and took trips to NY and to Canada and to Washington, DC. I continued to be in choirs at church through 12th grade. In college in my hometown I was in choir for 4 years and in band my senior year when one was formed,, People thought I was majoring in music. But I was in biology and then chemistry and finally changed to sociology as premed didn't work out for me. After graduation in 1963, I finally left home to begin first job in social casework in another town. After that for awhile I went to grad school in Oklahoma for a year in sociology. Then back to NC and to Georgia where I worked in retail sales until the Viet Nam War opened up government jobs in the Defense Dept. So off I went to a huge Airforce base in middle Ga to work in inventory management..There I became active in a local church and in choir and other community activities. I met my exwife at that time in church..We got married and we moved to Atlanta where our son was born in 1971. In 1973 we headed west to Oklahoma to locate halfway between her folks in Idaho and mine in NC. I was able to get a retail management trainee position which moved us to Nebraska to train and then to Kansas for my assignment as a manager of an arts and crafts store. The exwife returned to Idaho where our daughter was born in 1975. We got a divorce later that year and the children grew up in Idaho. I changed jobs several times while in Kansas: sales, welfare casework, inventory work. Moved to Los Angeles area for 3 years and then back to Ks until I moved to SE Kansas and began my own sales business for 11 years from 1991 to 2002 and retired. Moved over into Missouri in 2008. Have still been doing church music off and on. Also I do music shows at area nursing homes, assisted Living homes, and senior centers.. Enjoy going to festivals, concerts, parades, and other events with friends. Have been gardening with vegies and flowers for many years. The children remain in the West with their own families. I have 4 grandchildren.

Notes for John Raymond Raney:

John R. Raney, of Vicksburg, MI, died Fri, May 10, 2019, at the age of 65. John was survived by: his wife, Linda; four children: Jimmy (Sondra) Strong, of Sturgis; Angie (Justin) Smith, of Scotts; Mendy (Dave) Witt, of Vicksburg; Pam (Shawn) Sackett, of Scotts; 14 grandchildren. He is also survived by: his father: Johnny Raney; four siblings: Shirlene Raney of Kalamazoo; Jerry (Sheri) Raney of Galesburg; Mike (Becki) Raney of Battle Creek; and Doug Raney of Kalamazoo. The funeral service will be Wed, 11 am at the Chapman Memorial Church of the Nazarene, with Pastor Dave Downs officiating. The burial will follow at the Vicksburg Cemetery.

An outdoorsman with an adventurous spirit, John Raney was a loving husband, father, and grandfather. A hard worker who savored any time he had on the water, he lived a full life surrounding himself with the ones he loved. John treasured many years of boating and fishing and traveling up north to his favorite regions in Michigan to hunt. John leaves behind a wonderful collection of warm memories that will remain special to his close family and many special friends for generations to come. Reflecting back on the year 1954, the nation's economy continued to grow. Marlon Brando and Elvis Presley were household names. Car engines continued to get bigger and more powerful and a gallon of gasoline was a lean 29 cents. During these optimistic times, John Raymond was born to loving parents, Johnny and Shirley (Miller) Raney in Kalamazoo, MI, Feb 19. The oldest of five children, John's arrival brought much joy to the family home. Both of his parents modeled a strong work ethic. His father was a supervisor at Kalamazoo Vegetable Parchment, a growing paper mill company and his mother was the owner of Shirley's Hen House, a local hair salon in downtown Galesburg. Growing up in Galesburg, John, who often went by John Boy, lived a typical childhood of the times. He loved to run the neighborhood with a local group of kids who have remained his closest friends throughout his life. During his high school years, he worked at a local farm while keeping up with his studies as well as playing on the football team. Graduating with the Class of 1972, he went on to work for Checker Motors, a taxi manufacturing company for twenty years. Not to be forgotten was the meeting of Linda Hamlin Strong, who as fate would have it, the future love of his life came into this world nearly at the same time. Linda was born the same day and same year and just twelve hours apart. They met through a mutual friend in the year of 1982. On their first date, John went to watch her bowl at Continental Lanes. They shared many commonalities and were ready to share their lives together. Joining in marriage, they shared their four children; Jimmy, Angie, Mendy, and Pam together to complete their beautiful family. John was a wonderful husband and loving father. A steadfast provider, he left Checkers for K & D Environmental and later bought their convenience store, Country Food & Beverage on Sprinkle Road and TU Ave in Vicksburg. John kept the business well known for its customer service and family-friendly feel from 2002-2014 before he chose to close its doors. There wasn't anything he wouldn't do for each and every one of his children over the years. John's many years on the farm as a teen as well as having a dad who taught him many carpentry and mechanical skills as a young adolescent, as well as his own work experience, led him to be a jack of all trades when it came to handy work. The kids grew accustomed to calling him for support with the home projects or advice on car repairs. He loved to work together with them on projects both large and small. His life was blessed with fourteen wonderful grandchildren whom he adored. He was passionate about sharing his love of hunting and fishing with each of them as well as attending many of their special events and celebrations over the years. There was no doubt that his family was important to him. When it came time for relaxation, John was surely found out on Indian Lake, the lake he called home for many years. He found great peace and solace in the time he spent on the water. He never took a single day for granted. When friends or family were gathered together, he loved to share stories and make lasting memories often with his humor woven into the time they shared. John's battle with cancer was not what defined him. Instead, he will be remembered for his kind heart, warm spirit, and ability to model a lifetime of hard work providing for the family he loved. Each time they spend moments on the water, may they feel his presence and reflect fondly on the many treasured times they spent with him. Greatly missed and deeply loved, may his memories continue to burn brightly in their hearts forever.

Born Sep 15, 1935 to Jiro and Miwa (Nakazawa) Tachibana in Kyoto, Japan, Yayoi was the oldest daughter and second of five children. She vividly remembered life in WW-II Japan and could identify American bombers that flew over the country by the sound of their engines. Her father died when she was just 11 years old and she was left in charge of caring for her younger siblings while her mother worked two jobs to make ends meet. Growing up, she was always interested in America and loved American entertainment, preferring American movies and music; she was a huge Elvis fan. She married Ray Corder, a sailor who was stationed in Sasebo, Japan, in Dec 1958, emigrating to Grand Junction, CO, in Dec 1959, and settling in Montrose, CO in 1960. To this union four children were born: Mayumi, Miki, Perry and Kaoru. The marriage later ended in divorce. Yayoi was a fabulous cook and enjoyed delighting people with her culinary talents. She became an American citizen in 1984 and pursued her dream of opening Sakura, a Japanese cuisine restaurant, in 1985, a business she operated for 19 years. It was a great source of happiness for her to be recognized after her retirement by former patrons who would tell her how much they missed her food, especially her egg rolls and secret egg roll sauce. Yayoi loved traveling, spending time at the seashore and in the mountains, soaking in hot springs and exploring restaurants. She also loved flowers and had a green thumb; houseplants thrived under her care. But her greatest pride and joy was her family, especially her grandchildren. She was very involved in their lives, attending all their functions and encouraging them in their endeavors as they grew from children to adults; she was their fun and Obachan. She was proud to be Japanese and instilled in her children and grandchildren a pride in their Japanese heritage as well; the three generations made an unforgettable trip together to Japan in 1998 during cherry blossom season to visit uncles, aunts and cousins, and see the land of their heritage. Yayoi is survived by her children Mayumi (Shawn) Brill of Grand Junction; Miki (Keith) McCurdy of Phoenix, AZ; Perry (Elaine) Corder of Highlands Ranch, CO; and Kaoru Corder of Montrose; grandchildren Zach (Christa) Brill of Grand Junction; Arielle (Michael) Hewitt of Munich, Germany; Calvin McCurdy of Phoenix; and Connor McCurdy (Hannah Gilham) of Denver; and great granddaughters Ada and Amelia; and brother Shigeru Tachibana; nieces Naomi and Nami; nephews Toshiki, Hiroki and Goro of Japan.

She married Joseph Henry Fisher, son of Bernard O Fisher and Pauline Vanhook, on 03 Aug 1957 in Grand Junction, Mesa County, Colorado, USA (St. Joseph Church). He was born on 18 Jan 1933 in Denver in Adams county, Adams, Colorado, USA. He died on 06 Oct 2002 in Grand Junction, Mesa County, Colorado, USA.

Notes for Roberta "Bobbi" June Morris:

Roberta Jun Fisher "Bobbi Jun" of Grand Junction, CO, died peacefully while her granddaughter prayed over her at the HopeWest Ferris Hospice Care Center Tue, Aug 24, 2021. She is home to rest with her Lord after a long-fought battle with Alzheimer's and spending the last months of her life with her boys and family by her side. Bobbi Jun was born Jul 2, 1938, in Delta, Colorado, while her father worked in mining towns and as a chemist. Bobbi Jun was extremely connected to western Colorado and always had a story to share about how attached to the area she and her family were. After graduating from Grand Junction High School with a group of friends she stayed in touch with for decades, Bobbi went to study fashion and then marry her Navy sailor, Joe H. Fisher, in Grand Junction in Aug 1957. They moved throughout Colorado to Salida, Longmont, and Durango, before settling back in Grand Junction to operate the Continental Trailways bus depot. Bobbi Jun was a free spirit and lived a life of many passions, most important being her four boys, 12 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren who called her Granny. She was the life of many circles and was always up for an adventure. After she and Joe finished operating the bus depot, Bobbi Jun worked in boutique stores on Main St. She took any grandchild she could to the Mesa for fishing and a cinnamon roll, the Monument for a hike, or Palisade to a cafe lunch. After bravely defeating breast cancer in 1985, she turned to volunteer for an organization in Collbran who gave children with cancer an amazing opportunity to experience outdoor adventures. Bobbi generously involved her grandchildren in her giving and planted the seed of volunteerism in many of her children and grandchildren. Wherever Bobbi Jun was, she made a strong group of girlfriends who shared their faith, fun, and beautiful singing voices with one another. She had many loves and hobbies and trained as a clown and even trained her own clown dog, belly danced for years, created beautiful clay sculptures, went on dirt bike adventures with her family and to Lake McConaughy with her girlfriends. Her passion and work united when she became a Park Ranger on the Colorado National Monument. Bobbi Jun was strong in her faith of Jesus Christ and served him well, making sure her children and grandchildren knew His love and glory. Bobbi Jun's last years were marked combating Alzheimer's, a disease she helped her mother battle at the end of her life as well. Her family helped her through many of the complications and confusions of Alzheimer's and were able to spend the very end of her life by her side at the amazing HopeWest Ferris Hospice Care Center.

Bobbi Jun is survived by her four sons she adored, Joe (Sheryl), of Grand Junction, CO; Dave (Julie), of Grand Junction, CO; Jim (LeAnn), of Fruita, CO, and Paul (Marcy), of San Antonio, TX; sister-in-law, Mary Ann Fisher, of Grand Junction, CO; 12 grandchildren, and 17 great-grandchildren. She is preceded in death by her late husband, Joe H. Fisher; parents, Jun and Robert Morris; sister, Charlotte La'Nora; parents-in-law, Bernie "Bud" and Pauline Fisher, and brother-in-law, Gene Fisher. Services will be Sat, Sep 11, at 3 pm, at the Redlands Community Center. Bobbi was an awesome, loving woman and we will miss her dearly.

Notes for Cheryl Kay Hamlin:

Cheryl Kay Hamlin, age 48, died peacefully Sun, Apr 12, 2015. Born Apr 10, 1967 in Jefferson City, MO, Hamlin was a fifth generation Aspenite. She spent most of her adult life in the Roaring Fork Valley and had deep ties to the community. Over the years, she most enjoyed helping others while working in the nursing field. Cheryl was compassionate and giving to a fault. She was quick-witted, easy to laugh and truly beautiful inside and out. Her heart had a boundless capacity for love. Cheryl left this world too soon. She was a beautiful flower that never fully blossomed, a butterfly who hadn't quite figured out how to spread her wings and soar. To quote her favorite song: "If one door opens to another door closed," I hope you keep on walkin' till you find the window," If it's cold outside, show the world the warmth of your smile." Cheryl may not have found her window, but she warmed the world with her big beautiful smile. She is now at peace and reunited with her son Joshua Fields in heaven. Cheryl is survived by her parents, Jim and Linda Hamlin; her sons, Christopher Hamlin, Andrew Meador and Hunter Long; her grandchildren, Matthew Fields and Ayden Fields; her sister Connie Power; her grandparents, Luetta Whitson and Eloise & Jack Ilgen; and nieces, nephews and cousins. Family, friends and others whose lives Cheryl has touched are invited to Crossroads Church, Aspen, CO Fri, Apr 17 at 4 pm to remember Cheryl Kay Hamlin.

Notes for James Dennis "Denny" Alan Hamlin II:

Denny has two half sisters and an adopted brother all at least 10 yrs older than him.

By Mary Lou Hamlin, his mother

Although Denny Hamlin's mother Mary Lou spends almost every weekend at the track, working her son's merchandise hauler and interacting with the fans, she cherished a very special moment this past weekend at Pocono.

"Denny and Jordan are going to be parents and we're really looking forward to it," Mary Lou Hamlin said. "This is our first biological grandchild. We have an adopted son that has three and two step-daughters that have two. "

"They'll know the end of Aug what they are having."

While beaming with pride, she also recognizes that this is another major milestone in her son's life and one that means he continues to forge his own path in life.

"That was one of the things that was really difficult for his dad and I," Mary Lou Hamlin said. "We were so used to spending every weekend together with Denny."

"We did go karts since he was seven and then Denny went right into the stock cars every weekend," Mary Lou Hamlin continued. "That is the hardest thing was not seeing or talking to him all the time every weekend.”

“I have to look at it like empty nesting, like parents when their kids go away to college.”

Mary Lou Hamlin admitted that her family has always been close, having come from a family with five other brothers and sisters. Hamlin’s mother was a single parent, raising them all as a tight knit group.

“We were always really, really close,” Mary Lou Hamlin said. “Denny’s grandmother died when she was 91 years old, but one thing she always looked forward to and kept her going was watching Denny on Sundays.”

“I’m so glad that she got to see him make it to this level,” Hamlin continued. “Every Sunday, she would wear her Denny T-shirt and her No. 11 socks.”

“It was so funny because wherever she would go, would always ask people if they were NASCAR fans and if they knew Denny Hamlin,” Mary Lou Hamlin said. “She, needless to say, was very, very proud.”

In addition to her close-knit family and her time with her son, Mary Lou Hamlin also cherishes the time that she gets to spend with Denny’s fans.

“I’m very fortunate,” Mary Lou Hamlin said. “By doing the merchandise trailer, I get to meet his fans, which is great.”

“I also run his fan club so that connects me to his fan base,” Hamlin continued. “It’s still surreal to see people wearing T-shirts on with Denny’s face on it.”

“I enjoy the fan club, especially reading all the letters,” Mary Lou Hamlin said. “It’s tough sometimes to gather everything together that Denny needs to sign. It takes up a lot of time.”

“But what’s good is that I can do it when I want to during the day,” Hamlin continued.

“I can run my errands, go by FedEx and things like that. Then at 2 in the morning, I can be putting together all the packets.”

While Hamlin cherishes every moment at the track, she admits that it is a grueling lifestyle. But she also has NASCAR racing in her blood, which has made all the sacrifices along the way in Denny’s career worthwhile.

“People think it is so great but it is a lot of work,” Hamlin said. “It’s a lot of walking and a lot of heat and the challenges of getting in and out of the track.”

“But we have always been NASCAR fans and that’s how we got into it,” Hamlin continued. “From the time Denny was little, he would sit on his dad’s lap on Sunday afternoons and watch the NASCAR races.”

“When Denny was seven, a friend of ours suggested that he race go karts,” Hamlin said. “His dad knew from that moment on that he definitely had something.”

“But we also realized that there are a thousand other Denny Hamlins out there that never get the chance,” Hamlin continued. “Denny happened to be at the right place at the right time. He had good friends that helped him along the way to get him there.”

“We had to make sacrifices along the way, however, our other children were grown and we only had Denny,” Mary Lou Hamlin said. “So, by the time he had gotten into stock cars and we had run out of money, we decided since all of our other children were grown, nobody’s going to have this burden but us.”

“So, we decided to put all the chips in because we knew that he had something,” Hamlin continued. “We hoped that he got the opportunity and he did.”

Mary Lou Hamlin acknowledged that not only does her family help her each and every day in the NASCAR adventure but she also has a great network of support with other drivers’ moms, even if they don’t get to see each other quite as often as she would like.

“Unfortunately, we don’t get to see each other very often,” Mary Lou Hamlin said.

“Mother’s Day is when we all get to see each other at the race track.”

“However, when Denny first got into racing and I was looking into starting a fan club, I did spend time with Tony Stewart’s mom Pam,” Hamlin continued. “She told me her ins and outs and what to do.”

“Kurt and Kyle Busch’s mom and I sometimes go to lunch and shoot the bull, which is nice too.”

One of the challenges of also being a NASCAR mom is finding that balance in life that so many mothers find difficult, especially when it comes to taking care of herself and not just her racing obligations.

“It’s hard because the four days that I’m home, I have to make sure I have all my orders done,” Mary Lou Hamlin said. “So, I’ll work 24 hours if I have to to get all the orders done before I leave."

"It is hard living out of a suitcase because you empty it out just to pack it back up again," Hamlin continued. "But it gives me a break and I keep thinking that I'm not going to be able to do this for a long, long time."

"So, I want to take advantage of it and see different places, which I really enjoy."

Whether with Denny on race weekend, in the merchandise hauler, or interacting with fans, Mary Lou Hamlin has cherished every moment of her son's racing career. But she also has one bit of advice for the dad to be.

"Cherish the time that you have because it goes by so fast," Mary Lou Hamlin said.

"Then when they're grown, you look back on the conversations that you've had and they mean so much more."

Notes for Cindy Lou Gay:

Jan 13, 1953 - Jul 31, 2019 Cindy Lou Gay, age 66, died in Jul in New Orleans with her children at her side. She fell ill just days after moving there to be near her daughter. In the six years before she died, and before going to New Orleans, she lived in a few places around the country, including Washington DC, Florida and Maryland making new friends everywhere she went. Before deciding to see the country in 2013, Cindy lived in the Los Angeles area, where she raised her two children, Sean and Ryan, who survive her in death. She also leaves behind one grandchild named Aidan. Before retiring, she was a registered nurse. Late in her career as a nurse, she went back to school to achieve a Bachelor's of Science degree in nursing and used it to pursue nurse management opportunities. She loved cooking, animals and her family. She often blamed her constant concern for others and desire to care for people on being a nurse, but it was the other way around: she cared immensely for people so she became a nurse. It was unavoidable. Her gentle spirit and caring ways won't be forgotten by those that knew and loved her.

NPHS principal Daniel Jones had nothing but wonderful things to say about Noah, and challenged anyone to find a photo of the young man where he wasn't smiling. "What a wonderful kid. You talk about someone that was always positive, always upbeat, and never gave off a 'why me' or 'woe is me' attitude. Noah was amazing," Jones said. A member of the NPHS Chorus, Noah was voted homecoming king in 2013 by the student body. He also spoke at the baccalaureate prayer service held the week of graduation. "He made it to graduation last (school) year, and that was a struggle," Jones said, adding while Noah was undergoing treatments and couldn't attend school, they set up technology that allowed him to view his classes while he was away from campus. "He was well-loved." In addition to NPHS, Noah attended Genesis Christian School in Port Charlotte and Woodland Middle School in North Port. According to family members, in Noah's earlier years he received trophies in all different sports, but what he enjoyed doing most was playing video games and singing. He was involved with chorus and theater and into keyboard - anything musical involving his friends by his side made him happiest. He is survived by his parents, three brothers and other extended family members. A celebration of Noah's life will be 11 am Sat at South Biscayne Church, North Port. "He loved vegetable gardening and would do his own canning when he had his own home. He was an excellent cook." He brother was also a Harley-Davidson motorcycle fan and a long-time member of the Ozaukee Guzzlers Club, she said. "He was an extraordinarily friendly person. Notes for James Dennis "Denny" Alan Hamlin II:

Denny has two half sisters and an adopted brother all at least 10 yrs older than him.

By Mary Lou Hamlin, his mother

Although Denny Hamlin's mother Mary Lou spends almost every weekend at the track, working her son's merchandise hauler and interacting with the fans, she cherished a very special moment this past weekend at Pocono.

"Denny and Jordan are going to be parents and we're really looking forward to it," Mary Lou Hamlin said. "This is our first biological grandchild. We have an adopted son that has three and two step-daughters that have two. "

"They'll know the end of Aug what they are having."

While beaming with pride, she also recognizes that this is another major milestone in her son's life and one that means he continues to forge his own path in life.

"That was one of the things that was really difficult for his dad and I," Mary Lou Hamlin said.

"We were so used to spending every weekend together with Denny."

"We did go karts since he was seven and then Denny went right into the stock cars every weekend," Mary Lou Hamlin continued. "That is the hardest thing was not seeing or talking to him all the time every weekend."

"I have to look at it like empty nesting, like parents when their kids go away to college."

Mary Lou Hamlin admitted that her family has always been close, having come from a family with five other brothers and sisters. Hamlin's mother was a single parent, raising them all as a tight knit group.

"We were always really, really close," Mary Lou Hamlin said. "Denny's grandmother died when she was 91 years old, but one thing she always looked forward to and kept her going was watching Denny on Sundays."

"I'm so glad that she got to see him make it to this level," Hamlin continued. "Every Sunday, she would wear her Denny T-shirt and her No. 11 socks."

"It was so funny because wherever she would go, would always ask people if they were NASCAR fans and if they knew Denny Hamlin," Mary Lou Hamlin said. "She, needless to say, was very, very proud."

In addition to her close-knit family and her time with her son, Mary Lou Hamlin also cherishes the time that she gets to spend with Denny's fans.

"I'm very fortunate," Mary Lou Hamlin said. "By doing the merchandise trailer, I get to meet his fans, which is great."

"I also run his fan club so that connects me to his fan base," Hamlin continued. "It's still surreal to see people wearing T-shirts on with Denny's face on it."

"I enjoy the fan club, especially reading all the letters," Mary Lou Hamlin said. "It's tough sometimes to gather everything together that Denny needs to sign. It takes up a lot of time."

"But what's good is that I can do it when I want to during the day," Hamlin continued. "I can run my errands, go by FedEx and things like that. Then at 2 in the morning, I can be putting together all the packets."

While Hamlin cherishes every moment at the track, she admits that it is a grueling lifestyle. But she also has NASCAR racing in her blood, which has made all the sacrifices along the way in Denny's career worthwhile.

"People think it is so great but it is a lot of work," Hamlin said. "It's a lot of walking and a lot of heat and the challenges of getting in and out of the track."

"But we have always been NASCAR fans and that's how we got into it," Hamlin continued.

"From the time Denny was little, he would sit on his dad's lap on Sunday afternoons and watch the NASCAR races."

"When Denny was seven, a friend of ours suggested that he race go karts," Hamlin said. "His dad knew from that moment on that he definitely had something."

"But we also realized that there are a thousand other Denny Hamlins out there that never get the chance," Hamlin continued. "Denny happened to be at the right place at the right time. He had good friends that helped him along the way to get him there."

"We had to make sacrifices along the way, however, our other children were grown and we only had Denny," Mary Lou Hamlin said. "So, by the time he had gotten into stock cars and we had run out of money, we decided since all of our other children were grown, nobody's going to have this burden but us."

"So, we decided to put all the chips in because we knew that he had something," Hamlin continued. "We hoped that he got the opportunity and he did."

Mary Lou Hamlin acknowledged that not only does her family help her each and every day in the NASCAR adventure but she also has a great network of support with other drivers' moms, even if they don't get to see each other quite as often as she would like.

"Unfortunately, we don't get to see each other very often," Mary Lou Hamlin said. "Mother's Day is when we all get to see each other at the race track."

"However, when Denny first got into racing and I was looking into starting a fan club, I did spend time with Tony Stewart's mom Pam," Hamlin continued. "She told me her ins and outs and what to do."

"Kurt and Kyle Busch's mom and I sometimes go to lunch and shoot the bull, which is nice too."

One of the challenges of also being a NASCAR mom is finding that balance in life that so many mothers find difficult, especially when it comes to taking care of herself and not just her racing

"It's hard because the four days that I'm home, I have to make sure I have all my orders done," Mary Lou Hamlin said. "So, I'll work 24 hours if I have to to get all the orders done before I leave."

"It is hard living out of a suitcase because you empty it out just to pack it back up again," Hamlin continued. "But it gives me a break and I keep thinking that I'm not going to be able to do this for a long, long time."

"So, I want to take advantage of it and see different places, which I really enjoy."

Whether with Denny on race weekend, in the merchandise hauler, or interacting with fans, Mary Lou Hamlin has cherished every moment of her son's racing career. But she also has one bit of advice for the dad to be.

"Cherish the time that you have because it goes by so fast," Mary Lou Hamlin said. "Then when they're grown, you look back on the conversations that you've had and they mean so much more."

Notes for Kenneth Allen "Bo" Adkins II:

Somber faces lived the room. News of freshman Ken Adkins' death had hit hard. Even people who barely knew Ken were touched. He was the guy that always had a smile on his face and a joke to tell in my fourth hour class. He will be missed. Ken was killed Thu, May 9, while driving home from school in an afternoon rain storm. The accident occurred between Fleming and Burkhart Roads. His car hydroplaned on the wet roads, and he slid into the opposite lane and was hit. Then he slid back into his original lane, and he was hit again by somebody from that lane. Ken was killed instantly and pronounced dead on the scene. Ken enjoyed playing basketball and had hopes of playing pro ball. Friends will also miss his friendly competitiveness on the court. As freshman Mike DelVero said, "his sports abilities will be missed. He was really good." Ken went to McPherson Middle School for his 7th grade year and then moved to Fowlerville. He moved back in Nov of last year. One reason he moved back was to pursue his dreams of being a professional athlete through a higher level of competition.
